Scraps and facts.

- Prince Louis of Battenburg, nephew of King Edward, and rear admiral in the British navy, who has been the guest of the United States navy for the past ten days, has just been having a big time of it in New York city. He gave an informal reception to a delegation of newspaper reporters in the cabin of his flagship last Friday night; but he was shrewd enough to take care of himself admirably. When asked about the situation in Russia, he declined to commit himself. He said, however, that the defenses of New York were very inadequate and that the war vessels then in the harbor were sufficient to reduce the city to ruins. The prince went to West Point Saturday to witness a game of football between the cadets and the Carlisle Indians.

The shooting of bears within the city limits has become so common of late that Chief of Police Troyer has detailed two mounted officers to patrol the city to see that his instructions against the practice are carried out to the letter, says a Dulu:h letter. Chief Troyer said today: "Of course at first it was something of a novelty to step out of one's door and slay a bear but now that they have invaded the city in such numbers everybody seems anx-ious to put one of the clumsy fellows business, and we must put a stop to it." Every day boys and can be seen in the vicinity of Woodland and the State Normal school laying for a bear. Nobody has been shot, but if the practice continues the pofear that some reckless hunter mistake a human being in the dusk for a bear.

-The crop reporting board of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture on last Friday gave out following as to cotton: The estimated condition of cotton harvested and not harvested as reported on Nothis is the first time a condition revious years or with a ten-year average. The following table shows the condition of the cotion crop by states, November 1, 1905: Texas, 68; Georgia, 73; Alabama, 69; Mississippi, 64; South Carolina, 73; Arkansas, 67; South Carolina, 73; Arkansas, 67 Louisiana, 55; North Carolina, 76; In dian Territory, 73; Ternessee, 76; Oklahoma, 74; Florida, 73; Missouri, 77; Virginia 77; United States, 68.8.

- Tom Johnson, mayor of Cleveland O., alarmed at the official report that there have been 86 suicides in Cleveland in the last nine months, has tak en steps to check the carnival of selfdestruction. He has appointed a commission whose duty it is to attempt to dissuade would-be suicides from taking their own lives. The commission is made up of Director of Charities Coolly, with A. Greenlud, member of the charities bureau and State Senator Elliott F. C. Howe. Every man or woman in Cleveland who is contemplating suicide is invited to write a letter to the anti-suicide commission and tell their troubles. The members of the commission will then make an effort to remove the trouble. For people despondent from non-employment the commission endeavors to obtain employment, while the needs and wants of others seeking aid are looked in such work, and their labors so far have proved satisfactory. -St. Louis, Nov. 10: The Federal

ROCK HILL, Nov. 14.—The "Floral Show," conducted by the U. D. C., which has just closed was a very successful affair and netted the daughters a handsome sum. The main prize, for the best collection of chrysanthemums, won by Mrs. Dan Johnston of Charlotte, with Mrs. T. O. Flowers of Rock Hill as second. For the best collection of roses Miss Mary White was the winner. Miss Lula Caton was awarded the prize for a fine collection of potted plants. A handsome "bride" which was put up at raffle and decided through the guessing of her umber was won by Miss Mary Hope Crawford, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Crawford. An interestng incident in connection with the little lady's winning was that she selected 50 as her guess at the doll's number. Mr. William Mitchell bought the next guess and selected 49 giving his chance to the child. No. 49 was was the winning number which furnished some one with the paradoxthat "the winner both won and lost and came within one of doing neither. The judges were Mrs. A. > Reports from all parts of the county are to the effect that cotton picking is pretty nearly over. The whole county was pretty well represented in Yorkville last Saturday, and the reporter made inquiries of quite a num-ber of different people. Most of them said that the amount of cotton still unpicked would not aggregate mor the farmers are pretty close up with picked up, ginned up and sold up, But the selling has not been near as cose as the picking and the ginning. Up to this time, the sales probably amount to 75 per cent of the entire

There is no use trying to deny fact that there has been a good deal of laxity in the enforcement of the laws against the sale of whisky during the past few years. The laxity has been especially noticeable since the inauguration of the dispensary system Just what the reason was, it is diffi cult to say. It is a fact, however, that enforcement of the law was left able and satisfactory.

TIGER IN A CHURCH.

Harry Ward, the well-known colored sexton of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Yorkville, was committed to jail last Saturday night on the charge of selling liquor. It seems that Harry kept his whisky in a vestry room of the church, and used Sunday school literature with which to stop his bottles. They have it on the streets that the fellow used the pulpit as a bar counter; but that probably is a gratuitous suggestion.

Harry had been under suspicion for some time, and during Saturday afternoon Policeman Sanders got on to the fact that he was retailing by the drink from a bottle he carried in his pocket. He had made quite a number of sales when the policeman was apprised of the situation, and Mr. Sanders determined to give him still closer atten-

Later in the evening there developed point blank evidence of a sale. Policeman Sanders got hold of the facts in a way that could leave no room for doubt and at the same time he learned that Harry was making use of the church as a store room for his liquor. The Zion church, colored, has made application for a light, and this application will o doubt be granted. The idea of puttown district is being considered. -Rev. G. W. Painter, the wellknown Chinese missionary, delivered two interesting and instructive adiresses in the Presbyterian church morning the speaker gave a comprehensive ou:line of Chinese political conditions, and explained the mean-ing and object of the Boxer uprising. He said this uprising was not directed against the missionaries, as has been held by many; but against foreigners generally. It had its origin in tion. belief on the part of the Chinese that the ultimate intention of the foreigners is to overrun the country. In the evening he discussed the religious situation in China. He paid a glow-ing tribute to the homelife of the Chihese, and said it was undoubtedly the coundation of the Chinese civilization—the secret of its long endurance. He referred especially to the veneration of the young for the old, the obedience children to their parents, etc. The obstacles to the spread of Chris anity in China are those that are naturally to be expected when the Christian re-ligion comes in contact with a heathen religion. A collection was taken up for missionary purposes Sunday night and the response was very liberal. Rev. Mr. Painter spoke to the children three to six miles south of Yorkville. Up to the time when Messrs. C. C. Hughes and Glenn & Allison bought about two square miles of land over in that section there seemed to be nothing especially attractive about that immediate section; but since then Mr. R. C. Ellis of Grover, N. C., has purchased a tract of 270 acres, (the W. C. Seagale lands,) and Mr. J. A. Ellis, also of Grover, has purchased a tract of 540 acres, (the London lands) and other lands in the vicinity have developed a considerable stiffening in prices.

There have been very considerable improvements on the Glenn & Allison racts and the Hughes tracts, within the past year, both in the way of new houses and barns, and in improved methods, and the crops this year are larger than for years. Last year Mr. Hughes built on his

The one great drawback to the seccreek channel. The channel is only 3 or 4 feet deep for several miles, and because it does not carry off the water with sufficient facility the bottoms are subject to serious overflow in times of freshet. As the result much of the bottom land is of but little value. With the creek properly ditched these lands ought to be worth something like $100 an acre. The ditching will probably be very expensive; but Mr. Hughes and others, believe that the situation would justify the purchase of a steam shovel, and they may eventually undertake just such an en-

Richard Cheatham of Atlanta, secre-tary of the Southern Cotton Associais quoted by the New York Herald as having on Friday night severely criticised the report of the cotton crop issued last Friday from Washington, in which the condition of the crop on November 1 was stated to be 68.8. Mr. Cheatham, who is stoppin New York, said, among other things: "The most absurd piece of spite "The most absurd piece of spite work ever attempted was the issuing of the crop report on Friday by Mr. Wilson, the secretary of agriculture. In this report he announces the 'condition' at 68.8. Now, there is no sane man who ever saw a cotton stalk who does not know that on November 1 and November 10 it is not only far he yound the fruiting or bearing stage, out in nearly every case is entirely void of foliage of every kind. It has passed far beyond the increasing stage. ondition, so far as conditions are recognized in reports, is the same as on October 1 previously. - Members of the state dispensar constabulary under the lead of Chie C. Hall, made the round of Green sweet cider to be found. The cider was emptied into the street. - There is another sensation in connection with the Union Cotton mills failure as the result of a discovery to the effect that the books bearing on The Borkville Cotton Market.

Mr. Duncan's future contract transact tions are missing. It is known that Duncan bought contracts aggregating 88,000 bales, sufficient to last seven years, at 11½. These contracts were closed out at from 9.60 to 9.96. But some of the important books are miss-ing, having been removed from the mill office, and the directors have offered a reward of $2,500 for their re-covery with proof to convict the party or parties who removed them. One thousand dollars will be paid for the return of the books and no questions asked, or $500 will be paid for information that will lead to the recovery

- Chester special of November 11 to the News and Courier: The Rev. L. C. Hinton, one of the oldest and most widely known Baptist divines in this state, died at 2 o'clock this morn ing at his home here. For months his health has been failing, and the end which came peacefully and calm-ly, was not unexpected. Mr. Hinton was in his seventy-ninth year, and had been a zealous and earnest minister of the gospel for over half a century during seven years of which he serv ed the Chester church. He was a man of fine mind and talents, and spent hi life and means endeavoring to com fort, elevate and strengthen human ity. He was a native of North Caro-lina, coming to this state in 1850, a short time thereafter marrying Miss Catharine Kennedy of Chester, who died in 1903. He leaves a son and a daughter. - Chapel exercises Thursday morning will never be forgotten by the stu-dents who were in attendance, says a Due West special of Friday to the Charlotte Observer. On the rostrum sat the alumni of Erskine, and in the seats below, the present students. One or two had graduated half a century others at different intervals. With trembling lips and broken tones these old fathers of the church exhorted the right living and a useful appropriation of present opportunities. Age spoke to youth in warning and encouraging language and youth responded with grave faces and silent countenances. It was, too, a picture of the present in outlines of the future. In the course of his remarks, Rev. J. H. Simpson who left the institution in 1856, made the significant statement that, during the entire period of his connection
